It appears this gentleman is currently registered at a wrong address. His current address is in Onslow. He needs to register in Onslow ASAP and cancel the Pender registration. Then he should amend or file anew using his correct address with you, since Pender handles the election (I am assuming the agreement covers filing? If it does not, he could file in Onslow as well) Regardless, the certification of residency must be signed by Onslow since he is an Onslow resident.

Hi Amy,

I have a candidate for the office of Surf City, City Council Member, Douglas Medlin who has been a registered voter in Pender County since 07/30/1987. He is also the incumbent for the seat. When he filed candidacy for re-election, he listed a new address that is in Onslow County. Surf City is in both Onslow and Pender Counties and Pender handles the elections. I verified the new address is within the city limits of Surf City with the Onslow County BOE. However, on the bottom of the Notice of Candidacy form is the verification by County Board of Elections section that needs to be signed. He's registered in Pender, but he should now be registered in Onslow County. I don't want to sign the form when I know he does not live in Pender County. How should I handle this section? Attached is his voter profile and Notice of Candidacy.

Thanks for your help,

Dennis Boyles
