Dear David:

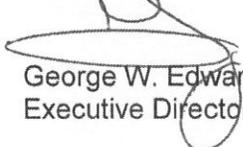

Congratulations! On behalf of the Historic Wilmington Foundation, it is my pleasure to inform you that we have reviewed and accepted your preservation award nomination. Your exceptional commitment to historic preservation was evident to everyone at the HWF.

The Foundation would like to honor your accomplishment at our Preservation Awards Ceremony on Thursday, May 21, 2015 at 6:00pm. The ceremony will take place at historic New Hanover County Courthouse, 24 North Third Street. We hope you, your friends and family and all those involved with the effort can attend this significant and enjoyable event. If you cannot be present at the ceremony, please let us know and it would be greatly appreciated if you could arrange for someone to accept the award on your behalf.

Please contact me at 910.762.2511 or Edwards@historicwilmington.org by May 18th to confirm if you will be present on the evening of May 21st, or to provide the name of the person who will accept the award for you. We hope to see you there!

Thank you, and again, congratulations!

Respectfully,

George W. Edwards
Executive Director

*Congratulations on the great job with the Historic Topsaw Shoal.
All the commissioners
and the key county
staff are invited to the award.*
