

D. Reapplication for Amendment

With the exception of requests originating with the Planning Board, an application for any rezoning of the same property or any application for the same amendment to the Zoning Ordinance text shall be permitted only once within any six (6) month period. The Board of Commissioners, by one hundred percent (100%) affirmative vote of its total membership, may waive this restriction if it finds any emergency exists.