Date Advertised

The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council having studied the needs of juveniles in the county hereby publishes this Request for Proposals.

The North Carolina Department of Public Safety (NCDPS) anticipates annual funds in the above stated amount will be available for programs serving delinquent and at-risk youth beginning on or after July 1, 2022.

Local match rate for JCPC funds required: 20%.

Based on identified needed programs and possible gaps in the service continuum, the following marked (X) program types will be considered for funding:

- Parent/Family Skill Building

As a result of the Risk Assessment and YASI data in the above named county, programs that reduce risk, address the needs of juveniles, and increase protective factors will be considered for funding.

Elevated Risk Factors for delinquency:	Elevated Needs for adjudicated juveniles:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regularly associating with other delinquent youth • Moderate to serious behavioral problems at school • Engaged in assaultive/aggressive behavior • Engaged in substance abuse • Inadequate supervision by parents/guardians • Referral to juvenile court prior to age 12 • Prior involvement with juvenile court 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Association with other delinquent peers • Substance abuse; sexually offending behavior, mental health problems, involvement with juvenile court prior to age 12, multiple referrals to juvenile court • Parental supervision problems • Moderate to severe behavioral problems at school

Protective Factors to address risk and needs:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participate and divert individuals, if applicable.

The web-based program application (NCALLIES) and instructions are available on line at the Department of Public Safety web-site: <https://www.ncdps.gov/Index2.cfm?a=000003,002476,002483,002482,002514>
